

What can I expect?

The morning begins with solid input from our speaker followed by coffee and then a chance to deepen a question or a text in small groups and finally discuss our findings in the big group before a simple soup & sandwiches lunch for those who wish it.

A voluntary contribution is requested.

CHURCH OF ST FRANCIS XAVIER, GARDINER ST

The Quiet Revolution of Pope Francis

10.00am—1.00pm
Saturday
20th October
At Gardiner Street

A Morning on Pope Francis's Quiet Revolution

Gerry O'Hanlon is a Jesuit priest, theologian and former Provincial of the Irish Jesuits. He has taught for many years at the Milltown Institute and worked at the Jesuit Centre for Faith and Justice where he has written extensively on church reform. He is adjunct Professor of theology in the Loyola Institute at Trinity College Dublin.

The Quiet Revolution of Pope Francis: is the “Synodal” Church the missing piece of the jig- saw?

Saturday

20th October

10am-1pm

Following the Pope's visit you may well ask

- Where do we go from here?
- What future is there for the Catholic Church in 21st Century Ireland?

Part of the answer may come in the “synodal church” proposed by Pope Francis.

Jesuit priest Fr. Gerry O'Hanlon will:

- explain what Pope Francis is proposing and..
- offer texts for reflection and discussion in groups.

In this workshop we may

- glimpse what the future may be and perhaps..
- hear the call to set it in motion.
